An Act for the further Encouragement of the Manufacture of Lustringꝭ and Alamodes within this Realme and for the better preventing the Importation of the same.

Rot. Parl. 8 & 9 Gul. III. p. 11. nu. 5.

WHEREAS it hath been always found of greate Advantage to encourage the setting upp and making of new Manufactures within this Realme whereby the Exportation of Money to procure forreigne Cōmodities is prevented the Wealth of the Kingdome increased and the Poor are imployed And whereas there are great Quantities of Alamodes & Lustringꝭ consumed by his Majesties Subjectꝭ which till of late Yeares were imported from forreigne Partꝭ and thereby the Treasure of this Nation much exhausted but are now manufactured in England by the Royall Lustring Company to as greate Perfection as in any other Countrey whereby many Thousandꝭ may be imployed And whereas Provision hath been made by diverse Laws for the Encouragement of the said Manufacture and for pventing the Importation of such Forreigne Silkꝭ without paying the Duties charged thereon which have been frequently eluded by the subtil Practices of evil disposed Persons For remedy thereof and for the further Encouragement of the said Manufacture be it enacted and it is hereby enacted by the Kingꝭ most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lordꝭ Spiritual and Temporal and the Cōmons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That every Person or Persons who shall import any forreigne Alamodes or Lustringꝭ from Partꝭ beyond the Seas into any Port or Place within the Kingdome of England Dominion of Wales or Towne of Berwick upon Tweed without paying the Rates Customes Impositions and Duties that shall be due and payable for the same att such Importation or shall import any Alamodes or Lustringꝭ prohibited by Law to be imported or shall by way of Insurance or otherwise undertake or agree to deliver or in pursuance of any Undertaking Agreement or Insurance shall deliver or cause to be delivered any such Goodꝭ or Merchandize and every Person or Persons who shall agree to pay any Sūm or Sūms of Money Premium or Reward for insuring or conveying any such Goodꝭ or Merchandize or shall knowingly receive or take the same into his her or their House Shopp or Warehouse Custody or Possession such Person or Persons [shall and may be prosecuted for any the Offences or Matters aforesaid in any Action Suit or Information and thereupon a Capias in the first Processe specifying the Sūm of the Penalties sued for shall and may issue and such Person or Persons[1]] shall be obliged to give sufficient Bail and Security by natural borne Subjectꝭ Persons naturalized or Denizens to the Officer serving or executing the Writt or Processe on or against him her or them to appeare in the Court out of which such Writt or Processe did issue att the Day of the Returne of such Writt or Processe to answer such Suit or Prosecution and shall att the Time of such Appearance give sufficient Bail or Security by such Persons as aforesaid in the said Court to answer and pay all the Forfeitures and Penalties incurred for such Offence in case hee she or they shall be convict thereof or to yield his her or their Bodies to Prison.

Recital that great Advantage has accrued from setting up new Manufactures within the Realm.

Persons importing Foreign Alamodes, or Lustrings, without paying the Customs, &c.;

or agreeing or undertaking to deliver such Goods, may be prosecuted, and a Capias thereupon be issued in the first Process, &c.

And whereas by an Act made in the Fourth and Fifth Yeares of King William and Queen Mary intituled An Act for continuing several Actꝭ therein mentioned and for chargeing certaine joynt Stockꝭ a Penalty of Five hundred poundꝭ is laid upon Persons insuring to import prohibited Goodꝭ or Goodꝭ without paying Duties and Customes and also a Penalty of Five hundred poundꝭ upon any Person who shall be so insured For the more easie and certaine Recovery of the same itt is hereby further enacted That it shall and may be lawfull for any Person or Persons to sue for or prosecute and to recover the said Penalty by Action of Debt Bill Plaint or Information in any of his Majesties Courtꝭ of Record at Westminster wherein no Essoigne Protection Priveledge or Wager of Law shall be allowed nor more than one Imparlance.

II.
4 W. & M. c. 15. § 11.
The said Penalty may be sued and recovered by Action of Debt, &c.

And be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all Black Alamodes and Lustringꝭ wheresoever manufactured which shall be found in the Custody or Possession of any Person or Persons not marked and sealed with the Mark and Seale or Markꝭ and Seales of the Custome House or of the Royal Lustring Company

Rot. Parl. 9 Gul. III. p. 5. n. 5.

An Act to repeal the Act made the last Session of Parliament intituled An Act for Relief of Creditors by making Composition with their Debtors in case Two thirds in Number and Value do agree.

Recital that 8 & 9 W. III. c. 18. hath not answered the End for which it was intended.

Whereas an Act [made,'] in the Second Session of this present Parliament held in the Eighth and Ninth Years of His Majesties Reign intituled An Act for Relief of Creditors by making Compositions with their Debtors in case Two thirds in Number and Value do agree. hath not answered the end for which the same was intended in regard that notwithstanding the Provisions in the said Act for preventing Frauds in the making such Compositions many fraudulent Practices have been committed by making pretended Agreements with Persons who were not real Creditors and for greater Advantages than what were expressed in such Compositions which Practices have (as there is just Cause to fear) occasioned much Perjury For Remedy whereof be it enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by the Authority of the same That from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June in the Yeare of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety and eight the said Act and every Clause Matter & Thing therein contained shal be repealed determined and of no Force.

Repealed.

II. Proviso for Agreements and Compositions bona fide entered into before 24th June 1698; and for Orders for discharge of Debtors, made in pursuance thereof; and also in respect of Pardons of Penalties and Forfeitures against 8 & 9 W. III. c. 18.

Provided nevertheless and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That this Act shal not extend or be construed to extend in any wise to prejudice make void or impeach any Agreement or Composition made or which before the [said'] Twenty fourth Day of June shal be made bona fide and without Fraud and which shal be performed from time to time according to the true Intent and Meaning thereof nor any Order for the Discharge of any Debtor out of Custody made or which shal be made in pursuance of such Agreement and Composition and by virtue of the abovesaid Act or which [is'] or shal be within the Saving or Benefit thereof before the said Twenty fourth Day of June but that every such Agreement or Composition whereupon any such Order of Discharge is or shal be made as aforesaid shal be good and effectual to all Intents and Purposes and every such Order and Discharge is hereby ratifyed and confirmed And every such Agreement and Composition whereupon no such Order of Discharge is or shal be made as aforesaid shal be and remain of the same Force and Effect (and no other) as if this present Act had not been made nor to pardon indempnifie or discharge any Person who hath incurred or before the said Twenty fourth Day of June shal incurr any Penalty or Forfeiture by committing any Offence against the said Act but that every such Offender shal be liable to the same Forfeitures and Penalties as if the said Act had continued in full Force.

III. Agreements, Releases, and Discharges made

Provided always and be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That no Person or Persons [that'] heretofore have been or shal before the said Twenty fourth Day of June be discharged by vertue of this Act shal be deemed or adjudged to be discharged thereby who to procure any Agreement Compositions Releases or Discharges whatsoever

CHAPTER XXX.

An Act for increasing His Majesties Duties upon Lustrings and Alamodes.

Rot. Parl. 9 Gul. III. p. 5. n. 64

WHEREAS the Wrought Silks commonly called Lustrings and Alamodes under the name of Wrought Silks in and by the Book of Rates referred to in the Act of Tunnage and Poundage which was made and passed in the Twelfth Yeare of the Reign of His late Majesty King Charles the Second were valued at Fourty Shillings the Pound Weight containing Sixteen Ounces and acccording to that Valuation are and will be lyable to pay several Subsidies additional and other Duties or Impositions to Your Majesty by virtue of several Acts of Parliam[t]. since that time made and past referring to the said Book of Rates for the Value of the said Silks We Your Majesties most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Commons of England in Parliament assembled being sensible that the said Silks called Lustrings and Alamodes were much undervalued in the said Book and that the same are ordinarily of a much higher Value than Fourty Shillings for such a Pound Weight as aforesaid Do therefore in all humility Grant that Your Majesties Duties for and upon all Lustrings and Alamodes imported now payable by or according to the said Valuation of Fourty Shillings the Pound Weight shal be increased answered and paid according to the Valuation herein after mentioned And be it enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spiritual and Temporal and Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by Authority of the same That all Lustrings and Alamodes which from and after the Four and twentieth Day of June One thousand six hundred ninety eight shal be imported or brought into the Kingdom of England Dominion of Wales or Town of Berwick upon Tweed shal be valued at Four Pounds for every Pound Weight containing Sixteen Ounces as aforesaid And His Majesties several Susbsidies additional and other Duties and Impositions as aforesaid dureing the continuance of the same respectively shal be collected paid and answered for and upon the said Lustrings and Alamodes according to the said Valuations of Four Pounds for every Pound Weight as if the same had been originally inserted in the said Book of Rates and had been pticularly referred to (instead of the said Rate of Forty Shillings) in the several Acts before before mentioned and that according to the same Rules and Methods and with such and the like Allowances and under such Penalties and Forfeitures as are by the said Acts or every or any of them prescribed for the respective Duties on the said Commodities Any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.

Recital of Valuation of Lustrings and Alamodes under the Book of Rates, 12 Car. II. and that Duty had been paid thereon accordingly; and that the said Silks were undervalued.

Ad valorem Duties increased.

Such Silks valued at £4 for every Pound weight, and Duties paid thereon, under the like Penalties as by former Acts.

Plight and Condition as they were at the time of such Certificate shewn and in case any such Defendants shall be so or otherwise acquitted on such Tryal and that such Plaintiffs or Prosecutors shall discontinue such their Suit or Prosecution or be nonsuited therein such Defendants shall recover treble Costs. Treble Costs.

VI.

And whereas it is necessary that Seamen should appoint Attorneys who may receive their Pay in their absence but of late an evil Practice is introduced that in the Letters constituteing such Attorneys there is added a Clause purporting a Will made by such Seamen whereby they make their Attorneys their Executors and give their whole Estate or great part thereof the Seamen being ignorant of the Efficacy and Consequence of such a Clause whereby the Relations and Familys of such Seamen as are killed at Sea often suffer great loss For preventing such Inconveniency for the future be it enacted by the Authority aforesaid That, from and after the said Four and twentieth Day of June no Will of any Seaman contained printed or written in the same Paper or Parchment with a Warrant or Letter of Attorney shall be good or available in Law to any intent or purpose whatsoever. Seaman's Will not to be written on the same Paper with a Letter of Attorney.

VII.

Provided also and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That no ecclesiastical Court or any Person or Persons whatsoever under any pretence do take or receive any more than the Sum of One shilling for the Seal writing or suing forth any Letters of Administration granted or hereafter to be granted to the Wife or Children of any Seaman whatsoever dying in the Pay of his Majesties Navy unless the Goods and Chattels of that Seaman do amount to the Sum of Twenty pounds and if any Officer or Officers shall presume to take any more than the Sum of One shilling the Person or Persons so offending shall forfeit to the Party grieved the Sum of Ten pounds to be recovered by Action of Debt Bill Plaint or Information in any of his Majesties Courts of Record or elsewhere. Fee to Ecclesiastical Court, &c. for Letters of Administration of Seaman dying in the Navy. Taking greater Fee, Penalty.

VIII.

Provided always and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That nothing in this Act contained shall be construed to hinder any the Principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy or any chief Comander of any of His Majesties Ships at Sea to lend any of His Majesties Stores to any Merchant Ship or Vessel in distress or otherwise as might lawfully be done before the making of this Act in case such Goods so lent be restored with all possible Conveniency and provided such Person or Persons so borrowing the said Stores from time to time have such Certificate as aforesaid which the said principal Officers and Commissioners of the Navy or Commander in Chief are hereby required to give to the Party or Parties that shall so borrow the same. King's Stores may be lent to any Ship in Distress; to be restored. Borrower to have a Certificate.

IX. After 10th May 1699, Vinegar Maker receiving Stale Beer, &c. or sending out Vinegar without Notice to Officer, as herein mentioned,

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and after the said Tenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety nine no Vineger Maker shall receive into his Custody any Stale Beere Returns of Beere or Ale Cyder Verjuice or other Liquors proper to be made into Vineger nor carry or deliver out any Vineger in Casks or by the Gallon without Notice thereof first given to the Officer of Excise for the Place or Division where such Maker shall inhabit to the Intent that such Officer may be present to see and take an Account of the same unless at such times as hereinafter are mentioned That is to say From the Nine and twentieth Day of September to the Five and twentieth Day of March yearly betweene the Houres of Seaven in the Morning and Five in the Evening and from the said Five and twentieth Day of March to the Nine and twentieth Day of September yearly betweene the Houres of Five in the Morning and Seaven in the Evening upon Paine that every Maker doing contrary thereunto shall forfeite for every such Offence the Sum of Fifty Pounds

Penalty £50.

X. Vinegar Maker receiving the said Liquors, to shew same to Gauger before mixing with other Liquors. Penalty £20.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and after the said Tenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety nine every Vineger Maker receiving into his Custody any of the Liquors aforesaid shall shew the same to the Gager of the Division where such Maker shall live before he mix the said Liquors soe received or any Part thereof with any other Liquors Rape or other Materialls on Paine to forfeite for every such Omission or Neglect the Sum of Twenty Pounds

XI. Vinegar Maker using Storehouse, &c. without Notice to Officer of Excise,

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That if any Vineger Maker shall at any time after the said Tenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety and nine without first giveing Notice thereof at the next Office of Excise make use of any Storehouse Warehouse Celler or other Place for [the[1]] makeing laying or keeping any Vineger Vineger Beere or Liquors preparing for Vineger every such Vineger Maker shall forfeite and loose for every such private Storehouse Warehouse Celler and other Place so made use of without such Notice as aforesaid the Sum of Fifty Pounds

Penalty £50.

XII. How a Barrel of Vinegar to be accounted and returned.

AND whereas the Duties on Vinegers and Vineger Beer charged by the former Acts were computed by different Measures whereby Disputes and Controversies have arisen touching the charging of the same For preventing whereof for the future be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid That every Thirty and four Gallons taken by the Gage according to the Standard of the Ale Quart (Four whereof shall be deemed a Gallon) remaining in the Custody of the Chaimberlaines of His Majesties Exchequer from and after the said Tenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety nine shall be reckoned accounted and returned by the Gager for a Barrell of Vineger Vineger Beere or Liquor preparing for Vineger Any thing in the said former Acts or any of them or any other Law Statute or Provision to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding XIII. How far Vinegar Makers having in Custody Vinegar, &c. on the 10th May 1699, charged with former Duties are to be charged for the same.

AND whereas severall Makers of Vineger may have in their Custody severall Quantities of Vineger Beere or Liquors preparing for Vineger on the said Tenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety nine for which they may then stand charged with or have answered to His Majesty some of the Duties imposed by the former Acts Be it enacted and declared by the Authority aforesaid That every such Vineger Maker shall by virtue of this Act be chargeable for such Vineger Beere or Liquors preparing for Vineger with so much only as shall make the Duties charged thereon by virtue of the former Acts Eight Shillings for every Barrell thereof and no more Any thing therein contained to the contrary notwithstanding

XIV. Recital of Improvement in distilling of Brandy; and 7 & 8 W. III. c. 30. and of the Inconvenience of the said Duties. 4d., Part of the said Duty of 8s. per Gallon of Low Wines, and a Moiety of the said Duty of 3d. per Gallon (Exception)

AND whereas it is found by Experience that the Art of distilling Spirits or Brandy in this Kingdom is of late Yeares very much improved and that Spirits or Brandy made here from Mellasses and Sugar which are the Produce of the English Plantations is near as good as Brandy imported from Forreigne Parts And whereas by an Act made in the Seaventh Yeare of the Reigne of His present Majesty (intituled An Act for laying severall Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the First Extraction and for preventing the Frauds and Abuses of Brewers Distillers and other Persons chargeable with the Duties of Excise) there is a Duty of Eight Pence imposed upon every Gallon of Low Wines or Spirits of the First Extraction made or drawne from any Forreigne or imported Materialls or any mixture with Forreigne Materialls and a Duty of Three Pence upon every Gallon of Low Wines or Spirits of the First Extraction made or drawne from any English Materialls other than Drink made or brewed from malted Corn or from Brewers Wash or Tilts which said high Duties are a great Discouragement to the makeing of the said Commodities and do occasion undue Practices in the same Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and after the Tenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety nine Four Pence per Gallon part of the said Duty of Eight Pence imposed upon every Gallon of Low Wines and Spirits of the First Extraction made or drawne from any Forreigne or imported Materialls or any Mixture with Forreigne Materialls and one Moiety or halfe part of the said Duty of Three Pence upon every Gallon of Low Wines or Spirits of the First Extraction made or drawne from any English Materialls (other than Drink made or brewed

PROVIDED alwaies and it is hereby enacted That this Act or any thing herein contained shall not extend to take away lessen or make void the Payment of any Sum or Sums of Money accrewing or becomeing due to His Majesty for any Low Wines or Spirits of the First Extraction actually made or drawne from any the Materialls before mentioned before the said Tenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety nine and which shall be then due and owing to His Majesty And that all and every the Clauses Matters and Things in the last mentioned Act contained for chargeing securing raising levying or paying the whole Duties on the said Low Wines and Spirits of the First Extraction which were thereby granted and for disposing applying and appropriating the same to the Uses and Purposes therein mentioned shall be applyed practised and put in Execution for the charging securing levying raising and paying the said remaining parts of the said Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits (not hereby taken away) and for disposing applying and appropriating thereof to the same Uses and Purposes as fully and effectually as if the said Clauses Matters and Things were for that purpose againe repeated and particulerly re-enacted by this present Act

XVI. Stat. 12 Car. II. c. 24. and other Acts to remain in force for levying the said Duties.

AND be further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all and every the Powers Authorities Directions Rules Methods Penalties Forfeitures Clauses Matters and Things which in and by an Act of Parliament made in the Twelfth Yeare of the Reigne of the late King Charles the Second intituled An Act for takeing away the Court of Wards and Liveries and Tenures in Capite and by Knights Services and Purveyance and for settling a Revenue upon His Majesty in lieu thereof or by any other Law now in force relating to His Majesties Revenue of Excise upon Beere Ale and other Liquors are provided settled or established for raising levying collecting recovering adjudging or ascertaining the Duties thereby granted or any of them (other than in such Cases for which other Penalties or Provisions are made and prescribed by this Act) shall be exercised practiced applied used levied recovered and put in Execution for the raising levying collecting recovering and paying as well the said Duties upon Sweets as the said Duties upon Vineger Vineger Beer or Liquors preparing for Vineger and the severall Duties upon Low Wines or Spirits of the First Extraction during the continuance of the same or any of them as fully and effectually to all intents and purposes as if all and every the said Powers Authorities Rules Directions Methods Penalties Forfeitures Clauses Matters and Things were particularly repeated and againe enacted in the Body of this present Act

XVII. How Penalties of this Act recovered.

AND be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That all Fines Penalties and Forfeitures by this Act imposed shall be sued for levied and recovered by such Waies Meanes and Methods as any Fine Forfeiture and Penalty is or may be recovered by any Law or Laws of Excise or by Action of Debt Bill Plaint or Information in any of His Majesties Courts of Record at Westminster And that one Moiety of every such Fine Penalty or Forfeiture shall be to His Majesty His Heires and Successors and the other Moiety to him or them that shall discover informe or sue for the same XVIII. In Actions for executing this Act, &c. General Issue may be pleaded. Treble Costs.

PROVIDED alwaies and be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That if any Person or Persons shall at any time be sued or prosecuted for any thing by him or them done or executed in pursuance of this Act or any other Act relating to His Majesties Revenue of Excise he or they shall and may plead the Generall Issue and give this Act and the said respective Acts in Evidence for his or their Defence and if upon the Tryall a Verdict shall pass for the Defendant or Defendants or the Plaintiff or Plaintiffs be nonsuited then such Defendant or Defendants shall have Treble Costs to him or them awarded against such Plaintiff or Plaintiffs XIX. Officers of Excise to keep Accounts of Wash found with Distillers; and to make Charges upon Decrease thereof, as herein mentioned. Distillers to pay Duty according to such Charge.

AND whereas it is found by Experience that any Quantity of Wash made of Mellasses will upon Distillation produce One Fourth Part of the same Quantity into Low Wines or Spirits of the First Extraction And that such Low Wines or Spirits upon the Second Distillation will produce Two Third Parts of the Quantity of the same Low Wines or Spirits into Proof-Spirits or Spirits of the Second Extraction And whereas many Distillers doe hide and conceale great Quantities of such Low Wines and Spirits from the Sight and View of the Gager before he can come to charge the same by meanes whereof His Majesty is very much defrauded in His Duties on such Low Wines and Proof-Spirits Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and after the said Tenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety nine it shall and may be lawfull to and for the Gagers and Officers of Excise to keep an Account of all such Wash which shall from time to time be found by him or them in the Hands of any Distiller and upon any Decrease thereof to charge such Distiller with so much Low Wines or Spirits of the First Extraction as One Fourth Part of the Wash soe decreased shall amount unto and alsoe with so much Proof-Spirits or Spirits of the Second Extraction as Two Third Parts of the Low Wines or Spirits of the First Extraction soe charged as aforesaid shall amount unto And such Distiller shall pay the respective Duties of the Low Wines and Spirits soe charged as by the former Act is directed and appointed Any thing in the said Act or any other Statute to the contrary thereof in any wise notwithstanding

XX. Recital of c. 4. ante, § 7.

AND whereas by an Act next herein after recited it is enacted That upon the Discovery of any Private Still Back or other Vessell according to the Directions of the said Act every such Still Back and other Vessell shall be seized and that the Owner or Owners of every such Still Back and other Vessell who shall claime the same within Twenty Daies after such Seizure shall forfeite and loose for every such Still Back and other Vessell the Sum of Two hundred Pounds And whereas upon the Discovery of severall private Stills and Backs since the Commencement of the said Act some Doubt hath been made whether the Owners of such Stills and Backs by refuseing to claime the same within the time limitted by the said Act may not avoid the Penalties thereby imposed Be it enacted That from and after the Tenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety nine the Proprietor of any such private Still Back or other Vessell which shall be discovered according to the Directions of the said Act or the Person in whose Custody the same shall be found shall forfeite and loose for every such Still Back and other Vessell the said Penalty of Two hundred Pounds Any thing in the said Act or any other Law or Statute to the contrary in any wise notwithstanding Penalty of £200 upon Proprietors of Private Stills, &c.

XXI.

And whereas by an Act made this present Session of Parliament intituled An Act to prohibit the excessive distilling of Spirits and Low Wines from Corne and against the exporting of Beere and Ale and to prevent Frauds in Distillers it is enacted That no Person whatsoever from and after the last Day of January in the Yeare of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety eight and before the first Day of February which shall be in the Yeare of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety nine shall draw distill or make any Brandy Aqua Vitæ Spirits or Low Wines whatsoever other than such Quantities as are allowed by the said Act from any Malt Corne or Graine whatsoever under the Penalties and Forfeitures therein mentioned And whereas severall Distillers of this Kingdom their Servants and Agents had incurred the Penalties of the said Law without any knowledge thereof by distilling in the Two Months betwixt the last of January One thousand six hundred ninety eight and the first of Aprill One thousand six hundred ninety nine greater Quantities of Spirits or Low Wines from Corne than the said Act doth allow Be it therefore enacted by the Authority aforesaid That every such Distiller his Servant or Agent who in the next succeeding Month or Months after the One and thirtieth Day of March One thousand six hundred ninety nine shall abate of the Quantities of such Low Wines and Spirits which he might lawfully draw in the same so much as he exceeded the Quantities allowed in the said Two Months shall not be prosecuted or have any Penalty inflicted upon him for or on Account of such breach of the said Act in the said Two Months Any thing in the said Act to the contrary notwithstanding Recital of c. 4. ante, § 1.

Distiller abating Quantities of Low Wines which he might draw, equal to those he exceeded, as herein mentioned, not liable to Prosecution.

XXII.

And whereas the pecuniary Penalties inflicted by an Act made in the Eighth Yeare of His Majesties Reigne for laying severall Duties upon Leather for the terme of Three Yeares are directed to be sued for by Action of Debt or on the Case or by Bill Suit or Information in some Court of Record whereby the Recovery of those Penalties are not only tedious and chargeable but troublesome and vexatious by multitudes of popular Actions and Informations brought by common Informers For the preventing whereof and more easie and speedy recovering the pecuniary Penalties inflicted by the said Act be it further enacted by the Authority aforesaid That from and after the Tenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety nine it shall and may be lawfull to and for any Two or more of the Justices of the Peace resideing neare to the Place where any such Forfeiture shall be made or Offence committed to heare and determine the same who are hereby authorized and required upon any Information exhibited or brought for any of the pecuniary Penalties by the said Act inflicted to summon the Party accused and alsoe the Witnesses on either Side and upon the Appearance or Contempt of the Party accused in not appearing (upon Proofe of Notice given) to proceed to the Examination of the Witnesses upon Oath (which Oath they are hereby impowered to administer) and to give Judgment or Sentence accordingly and where the Party accused shall be convicted of the Offence alledged against him to award and issue Warrants under their Hands for the levying of such Penalty or Penalties on the Goods of the Offender and to cause Sale to be made thereof in case they shall not be redeemed within Six Daies rendring to the Party the Overplus (if any be) And if either Party shall find himselfe agrieved by the Judgment of the said Justices then he or they may appeale to His Majesties Justices of the Peace at the next Quarter Sessions in like manner as by the said recited Act is mentioned in case of Appeale

Recital of Stat. 8 W. III. c. 21.

Two Justices may determine the Penalties of the said Act;

who may issue their Warrant for levying the same, &c.

XXIII.

Provided nevertheless That it shall and may be lawfull to and for the said respective Justices where they shall see Cause to mitigate or lessen such Penalty in such manner as they in their Discretion shall think fitt the reasonable Cost and Charges of the Officers as well in makeing the Discovery as in the Prosecution of the same being alwaies allowed over and above such Mitigation and so as such Mitigation doe not reduce the Fine to less than One Fourth Part thereof over and besides the said Costs and Charges Any thing in the said recited Act to the contrary notwithstanding

Power to such Justices to mitigate Penalties, allowing Costs over and above such Mitigation.

XXIV.

And whereas by one Act made in the Twelfth Yeare of the Reigne of King Charles the Second a Duty of Four Pence was imposed upon every Gallon of Strong Waters perfectly made imported from beyond the Seas to be paid for ever And by one other Act made in the Second Yeare of the Reigne of His present Majesty and the late Queen of Blessed Memory the like Duty of Four Pence per Gallon thereupon is payable during His Majesties Life and by another Act made in the Fourth Yeare of Their said Majesties Reigne there is a Duty of Six Pence imposed upon every Gallon of Single Brandy imported and a Duty of Twelve Pence on every Gallon of Double Brandy imported for the Terme of Ninety nine Yeares commenceing on the Twenty fifth Day of July One thousand six hundred ninety two And by one other Act made in the Fifth Yeare of Their said Majesties Reigne there is a Duty of Two Shillings imposed upon every Gallon of Single Brandy and Four Shillings upon every Gallon of Double Brandy imported for the Terme of Sixteene Yeares commenceing the Seaventeenth Day of May One thousand six hundred ninety seaven And by one other Act made in the same Yeare there is a Duty of Six Pence upon all Single Brandy and One Shilling on all Double Brandy imported granted in Perpetuity all which Duties upon Single

An Act for the more full and effectual charging of the Duties upon Rock-Salt..

Rot. Parl. 10 Gul. III. p. 3. n. 2. Reasons for passing this Act.

We Your Majesties most dutifull and loyal Subjects the Commons of England in Parliament assembled taking notice that by divers Acts of Parliament now in force severall Duties whereof some are for Termes of Yeares yet unexpired and others in Perpetuity are imposed upon all Salt and Rock Salt made within the Kingdom of England Dominion of Wales and Towne of Berwick upon Tweed or taken out of any Pit or Pits within the same to be raised disposed and applied to and for the severall Uses and Purposes in the same or by some other Act or Acts of Parliament in that behalfe expressed and declared and being sensible that Rock Salt which in and by the said Acts or some of them is chargeable with the said Duties after the Rate of One hundred and twenty Pound Weight to the Bushell may be and is used in kind for curing Fish Flesh and other Purposes without being refined into White Salt and all White Salt made from Brine or otherwise being chargeable with the said Duties after the Rate of Fifty six Pound Weight to the Bushell and that One hundred and twenty Pounds Weight of Rock Salt used in kind will serve the use of almost Two Bushells of White Salt reckoned at Fifty six Pounds Weight as aforesaid whereby the Makers of Salt from Brine have been and are extremely discouraged and His Majesties Duties intended by the said Acts have been and are very much impaired Have therefore resolved to increase Your Majesties Duties upon all Rock-Salt and Salt-Rock by reduceing the Bushell according to which the Duties thereof shall be paid for the future in the manner hereafter mentioned And be it enacted by the Kings most Excellent Majesty by and with the Advice and Consent of the Lords Spirituall and Temporall and the Commons in this present Parliament assembled and by Authority of the same That from and after the Fifteenth Day of May in the yeare of our Lord One thousand six hundred ninety nine every Seaventy five Pounds Weight of Rock-Salt or Salt-Rock taken out of any Pit or Pits within the Kingdom of England Dominion of Wales or Towne of Berwick upon Tweed shall be deemed and taken to be a Winchester Bushell of Eight Gallons Winchester Measure and shall be entred rated and taxed accordingly to and for the severall Duties upon Salt-Rock and Rock-Salt by the said severall Acts of Parliament charged or made payable instead of the Bushell of One hundred and twenty Pounds Weight in the said Acts or any of them mentioned and greater or lesser Quantities of the said Salt-Rock or Rock-Salt shall be reckoned proportionably Any thing in the said former Acts or any other Law or Statute whatsoever to the contrary notwithstanding 75lbs. weight of Rock Salt or Salt Rock deemed a Winchester Bushel, and to be entered and rated accordingly, instead of 120lbs. weight, as by former Acts.

II. Reasons for this Enactment.

And whereas by the said former Acts or some of them It is provided that all Makers and Proprietors of Rock-Salt should make true Entries with His Majesties Officers of the Quantities of Salt by them taken out of any Pit or Pits and should have a Warrant or Ticket from some one of the Officers to carry away the same before the said Salt made or taken out of any Pit or Pits should be removed or carried from the respective Pits and that such Warrant should be given gratis unto such Maker or Proprietor upon paying or giveing Security for Payment of His Majesties Duties within Six Months after such Entry made nevertheless the Owners or Proprietors of Rock-Salt having by the said Acts or some of them Liberty to remove their Rock-Salt into his or their own Warehouses or other Places for securing thereof for Conveniency of selling or shipping [off[3]] the same after due Entry made and a Warrant or Ticket taken for the same from the Officer next to such Salt-Pits and to pay and secure the Duty when the said Rock Salt shall be sold and delivered It is found by experience that there is not a sufficient Charge made and kept upon the said Owners or Proprietors for all the Rock Salt or Salt-Rock taken out of his or their Pit or Pits but between the Pits and the said Storehouses (which are in many places contrived so as to be remote from the Pits) or elce before the selling and delivery of the said Rock Salt great Quantities thereof are run and imbezelled and never charged to His Majesties great Damage and the Injury of such Workers as justly pay His Majesties Dues For Remedy whereof Be it futher enacted by the Authority aforesaid That every Owner or Proprietor of any such Rock Pit or Pits who after the said Fifteenth day of May One thousand six hundred ninety nine shall take any Rock Salt or Salt-Rock out of any such Pit shall before the Removall thereof cause the same to be
